- High visibility and SEO optimization (web searches always lead to RobotShop).
- World class bilingual (English/French) sales and technical support with highly trained technicians and engineers.
- RobotShop is specialized in residential and commercial robotic technology.
- We excel in distribution optimization and logistics.
- Distribution network in Canada, the U.S.A. and Internationally.
- Excellent infrastructure for shipping/returns/warranty.
- RobotShop has been around for many years and continues to grow.
- Manufacturer page: Each manufacturer has their own page where all their products are displayed. Also, these products are placed in their respective categories for unsurpassed visibility.
- Product descriptions are also translated into French on the www.robotshop.ca website for even more visibility.
- Customers will know immediately you are the manufacturer simply by looking at the product description.
- Easy to navigate website layout.

By partnering with RobotShop, your products and brands will gain significant visibility worldwide in multiple markets, including:

- Hobbyist and custom robot developers: a large segment of our customers are always looking for innovative products such as yours.

- Research and Development Organizations: Professionals and engineers alike prefer to purchase all their parts from one location.
- Government and Military.
- Designers and Manufacturers: many of our products are sold to manufacturers to be used in their products or their production process. When a part is successful in a company's prototype, the company often seeks out pricing by quantity which RobotShop offers.
- Education and Competitions: RobotShop's established customers include all levels of schools as well as student competitions.
